

NEPA's Enquiry Applications Process

Applicant submits Letter of Enquiry to NEPA along with location plan and project brief describing the scope and extent of the project

NEPA assesses information to determine adequacy.

NEPA makes contact with the applicant if additional information is required.

NEPA Technical Branch conducts a review of the application and gives an opinion on the proposal OR refers to the Internal Review Committee.

Application is presented to NEPA's Internal Review Committee where a decision is taken or referral made to other Technical Review Committees/ Authority .

Presentation to the Technical Review Committees/Authority which make recommendations.

NEPA prepares and dispatches letter of recommendation to the applicant.

LEGEND

- NEPA – National Environment & Planning Agency