THE TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (ST. MARY COAST)

PROVISIONAL DEVELOPMENT ORDER, 1962

In exercise of the power conferred upon the Town and Country Planning Authority by section 5(1) of the Town and Country Planning Law, 1957, the following Provisional Development Order is, after consultation with the Parish Council of St. Mary, hereby made:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Town and Country Planning (St. Mary Coast) Provisional Development Order, 1962, and shall apply to the area described in the First Schedule to this Order. Citation and application.
First Schedule.

2. In this Order the expression:

“the Law” means the Town and Country Planning Law, 1957; Interpretation.

“the Authority” has the meaning assigned to it by section 2 of the Law;

“local planning authority” has the meaning assigned to it by section 2 of the Law;

“planning authority” means local planning authority as defined by section 2 of the Law, and includes the Authority in any case where an application is referred to the Authority pursuant to the provisions of section 12 of the Law;

“development plan” means the plan including any accompanying statements, approved by the Governor in Council in relation to this Order;

“the Minister” has the meaning assigned to it by section 2 of the Law.

3. (1) Where a building or other land is used for a purpose of any class specified in the Second Schedule to this Order, the use of such building or other land for any other purpose of the same class shall not be deemed for the purpose of the Law to involve development of the land. Use Classes.
Second Schedule.

(2) A use which is ordinarily incidental to and included in any use specified in the Second Schedule to this Order is not excluded from that use as an incident thereto merely by reason of its specification in the said Schedule as a separate use.

(3) Where the total floor area of any proposed building or of the existing and proposed buildings on a holding does not exceed 750 sq. ft., planning permission shall not be required if in the opinion of the local planning authority such building or buildings will not be visible from the existing main road or the location of the proposed main road.

4. Subject to the provisions of this Order no development of land within the area to which this Order applies, shall take place except in accordance with the development plan and any planning permission granted in relation thereto: Prohibition of development.

Provided that the planning authority may in such cases and subject to such conditions as may be specified by directions given by the Minister under this Order grant permission for development which does not appear to be provided for in this Order or the development plan, and is not in conflict therewith.

5. (1) An application to the local planning authority for planning permission shall be made in a form issued by the local planning authority and obtainable from that authority or from the Authority, and shall include the particulars required by such form to be supplied, and be accompanied by a plan sufficient to identify the land to which it relates and such other plans and drawings as are necessary to describe the development which is the subject of the application, together with such additional number of copies (not exceeding five) of the form and plans and drawings as may be required by the directions of the local planning authority printed on the form; and the local planning authority may by a direction in writing addressed to the applicant require such further information to be given to them in respect of an application for permission made to them under this paragraph as is requisite to enable them to determine that application. Applications for planning permission.

(2) Where an applicant so desires, an application expressed to be an outline application may be made under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for permission for the erection of any building, subject to the making of a subsequent application to the local planning authority with respect to any matters relating to the siting, design or external appearance of the buildings, or the means of access thereto; in which case particulars and plans in regard to these matters shall not be required and permission may be granted subject as aforesaid (with or without other conditions) or refused:

Provided that—

(a) where such permission is granted it shall be expressed to be granted under this paragraph on an outline application and the approval of the planning authority shall be required with respect to the matters reserved in the planning permission before any development is commenced;

(b) where the planning authority are of the opinion that in the circumstances of the case the application for permission ought not to be considered separately from the siting, design or external appearance of the buildings, or the means of access thereto, they shall, within the period of one month from the receipt of the outline application, notify the applicant that they are unable to entertain such application, specifying the matters as to which they require further information for the purpose of arriving at a decision in respect of the proposed development, and the applicant may either furnish the information so required (in which event the application shall be treated as if it had been received on the date when such information was furnished and had included such information) or appeal to the Minister under section 13 of the Law within one month of receiving such notice, or such longer period as the Minister may at any time allow, as if his outline application had been refused by the planning authority.

(3) An application for an approval required by virtue of proviso (a) to sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph shall be in writing and shall include such particulars and be accompanied by such plans and drawings as are necessary to deal with the matters reserved in the planning permission together with such additional number of copies of the application and plans and drawings as were required in relation to the application for planning permission.

(4) An application to the local planning authority for a determination under section 14 of the Law shall be in writing, and shall contain a description of the operations or change of use proposed and of the land to which such proposal relates.

(5) On receipt of any application under this paragraph the local planning authority shall send to the applicant an acknowledgment thereof in the terms (or substantially in the terms) set out in Part I of the Third Schedule hereto.

(6) The planning authority may by a direction in writing addressed to the applicant require to be produced to an officer of the authority such evidence in respect of an application for permission made to them as they may reasonably call for to verify any particulars of information given to them.

(7) Except where otherwise provided, the period within which the planning authority shall give notice to an applicant of their decision shall be three months or such extended period as may at any time be agreed upon in writing between the applicant and the planning authority.

(8) Every such notice shall be in writing, and—

(a) where the planning authority decide to grant planning permission subject to conditions or to refuse it, they shall state their reasons in writing and send with the decision a notification in the terms (or substantially in the terms) set out in Part II of the Third Schedule hereto;

(b) in the case of an application for a determination (whether forming part of an application for planning permission or not) where the planning authority determine that the carrying out of operations or the making of a change in the use of land would constitute or involve development of the land, they shall state in such notice the grounds for their determination and include a statement to the effect that if the applicant is aggrieved by their decision he may appeal to the Minister under section 13 of the Law within one month of the receipt thereof.

(9) The planning authority shall furnish to the Minister and to such other persons as may be specified by directions given by the Minister under this Order, such information as may be so specified with respect to applications made to the planning authority under this paragraph, including information as to the manner in which any such application has been dealt with.

Directions
restricting the grant of planning permission.

6. (1) The Minister may give directions restricting the grant of planning permission by the planning authority during such period as may be specified in the directions, in respect of any such development or in respect of development of any such class, as may be so specified.

(2) The planning authority shall deal with applications for permission to develop to which such directions relate in such manner as to give effect to the terms of the directions.

Development
roads.

7. Before granting permission for development affecting main roads, whether unconditionally or subject to conditions, the planning authority shall consult the Chief Technical Director, Ministry of Communications and Works (Public Works Department).

Reference of
the Authority.

8. On referring any application to the Authority under section 12 of the Law, pursuant to a direction in that behalf, the local planning authority shall serve on the applicant notice of the terms of the direction, and of any reason given by the Authority for issuing the direction, and such notice shall inform the applicant that the application has been referred to the Authority and shall contain a statement that the Authority will, if the applicant so desires, afford to the applicant an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by a person appointed by the Authority for the purpose.

Appeals.

9. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Order, any person who desires to appeal—

(a) against a decision of the planning authority refusing planning permission or granting planning permission subject to conditions; or

(b) against a determination of the planning authority under section 14 of the Law; or

(c) on the failure of the planning authority to give notice of their decision or determination, shall give notice of appeal to the Minister within one month of the receipt of notice of the decision or determination, or of the expiry of the period specified in paragraph 5(7) of this Order, as the case may be, or such longer period as the Minister may at any time allow.

(2) Such person shall also furnish to the Minister a copy of the following documents—

- (i) the application made to the planning authority;
- (ii) all relevant plans, drawings and particulars submitted to them;
- (iii) the notice of the decision or determination, if any;
- (iv) all other relevant correspondence with the planning authority.

10. (1) The planning authority shall keep a register containing the following information in respect of all land within the area to which this Order applies, namely— Register of applications.

- (a) particulars of any application for permission to develop made to them in respect of any such land, including the name and address of the applicant, the date of the application, and brief particulars of the development forming the subject of the application;
- (b) particulars of any direction given under the Law or this Order in respect of the application;
- (c) the decision, if any, of the planning authority in respect of the application, and the date of such decision;
- (d) the date and effect of any decision of the Minister on appeal, in respect of the application;
- (e) the date of any subsequent approval given in relation to the application.

(2) Such register shall include an index, which shall be in the form of a map unless the Minister approves some other form, for enabling a person to trace any entry in the register.

(3) Such register shall be kept at the office of the planning authority.

(4) Every entry in the register consisting of particulars of an application shall be made within fourteen days of the receipt of such application.

11. (1) Any power conferred by this Order to give a direction or consent shall be construed as including power to cancel or vary the direction by a subsequent direction or, as the case may be, to revoke or modify such consent. Directions, consents and Notices.

(2) Any notice or other document to be served or given under this Order may be served or given in the manner prescribed by section 30 of the Law.

12. (1) Where any land within the area to which this Order applies is subdivided into allotments for the purposes of sale lease or letting or for building purposes, a scheme plan showing the proposed subdivision shall be prepared by a surveyor and submitted to the local planning authority for approval. Control of subdivision of land.

(2) A person shall not sell, or offer or advertise for sale, or build upon, any allotment in any subdivision to which this paragraph applies, or form any proposed road in connection therewith, unless a scheme plan has been previously approved whether conditionally or unconditionally by the local planning authority.

(3) Every scheme plan prepared for the purposes of this paragraph shall show the whole of the land being subdivided and the several allotments and their areas and dimensions and, in addition to existing roads, reserves, access ways and service lanes, and land affected by existing easements shall also show the proposed roads and their approximate grades, the proposed reserves, access ways and service lanes, the situation of any land to be affected by easements, which are to be created and the nature of the easements, and such other particulars as may be specified in writing by the local planning authority.

(4) The local planning authority may refuse to approve any scheme plan or may approve the plan either unconditionally or upon or subject to such conditions as they think fit.

(5) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph the local planning authority may refuse to approve any scheme plan—

- (a) if in their opinion closer subdivision or settlement of the land shown on the scheme plan is not in the public interest or the land for any other reason whatsoever is not suitable for subdivision;
- (b) if in their opinion adequate provision has not been made for the drainage of any allotment or the disposal of sewage therefrom;
- (c) if in their opinion the subdivision would interfere with or render more difficult or costly the carrying out of any public work or scheme of development which is proposed or contemplated by the Government of the Island or any local authority;
- (d) if in their opinion the proposed subdivision does not conform to recognised principles of town planning.

(6) The local planning authority shall give notice of any conditions upon or subject to which a scheme plan has been approved to the person who made application for the approval of the scheme plan.

(7) In any case where the local planning authority have refused to approve the scheme plan or have approved the scheme plan upon or subject to conditions, the planning authority shall so notify the applicant and he may thereupon appeal to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

(8) Where an appeal under sub-paragraph (7) of this paragraph is made to the Minister, the following persons shall be entitled to be heard, to produce evidence and to put questions to witnesses, namely—

- (a) the local planning authority;
- (b) the owner of the land or interest in the land, to which the appeal relates;
- (c) in any case where a main road is affected, or is likely to be affected, the Chief Technical Director, Ministry of Communications and Works (Public Works Department) or his nominee.

(9) For the purpose of this paragraph, the expression—

“owner”, in respect of any land or interest therein, includes an owner thereof, whether beneficially or as a trustee, and mortgagee acting in exercise of the power of sale, and any person whatsoever having power to dispose of the land or interest therein by way of sale;

“sale” includes exchange, gift, devise or other disposition affecting the fee simple, and lease for any term (including renewals under the lease) exceeding twenty years and also includes any disposition affecting the leasehold interest under any such lease as aforesaid;

Cap. 211. “surveyor” has the meaning assigned to it by section 2 of the Land Surveyors Law; and any division of land whether into two or more allotments shall be deemed to be a subdivision of that land for the purpose of sale if at least one of these allotments is intended for sale.

Cap. 227. 13. The provisions of the Local Improvements Law, Cap. 227 and Regulations made thereunder shall not apply to the subdivision of land within the area to which this Order applies.
